CATALOGUE 192

MAY 2016

Glossary of Terms (and conditions)

Returns: books may be returned for refund within 7 days and only if not as described in the catalogue.

NOTE: If you prefer to receive this catalogue via email, let us know on info@imprimaturbooks.com.au

My Bookroom is open each day by appointment – preferably in the afternoons. Give me a call.

Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. Illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps + end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored; generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

Postage is always extra and insurance is available upon request. Overseas orders by credit card only. Postage will be by cheapest and most practical means possible unless otherwise requested. (In Australia, Express Post is the quickest and carefully handled by Australia Post. Express Post has increased to $17 for a 3kg satchel (this includes everything OVER 500gms and under 3kg). So if you want it quick use Express—bit slower is the 3kg red satchel - $15 which includes post pack and TLC).

Our terms for first-time buyers are 'payment up front'. Established buyers can pay by credit card, cheque, money order etc on receipt of an invoice.

Welcome to Catalogue 192 May 2016. We're flat strap to sell the remaining 300 odd copies of SIMMO so we can distribute the funds to charities. We were on track to sell the last of them by ANZAC Day but we still have stock available. It's such a beautiful, high quality book that anyone would be pleased to have it in their library. It tells the harrowing story of a simple man who taught himself most things, spent years in a boys home and was an indentured labourer on a dairy farm at aged 11. He was always keen to join the army and got his wish on his 18th birthday. He was quite a naughty boy in his first few years in the army so much so he had a rap sheet as long as his arm by the time he was demobed in 1947. When he signed up for the Korean War in 1950 he joined under his brother Robert's name fearing his conduct sheet would prevent him from re-joining. From there on in he was a dedicated and loyal soldier who saw his soldiers as his mates and family. Brings a tear to the eye to read this stuff. This list is accompanied by the SIMMO order form for those wishing to buy one. This can be posted or emailed to us. For those who may be interested we are investigating getting a few copies done in leather, numbered and signed. This process is ongoing with hopefully, some idea of costs and availability by the end of the financial year. It won't be cheap folks, but that's the nature of unique, desirable and limited editions. But it will be first in best dressed and I don't mind people reserving a copy now. Let me know if interested and I'll put you on the list. I'm also investigating doing a few in the remainder of the emu leather we used for the SAS Pictorial History in 1997. (and no, they are NOT available—long gone!). This was quite a unique leather to be using for a book (we did 152 of them). It is a rustic finish with the feather holes very much in evidence. It will be very limited, so if you have the emu bound Pictorial History this would make a very nice set. So, as you can see, it will be a very limited production.

There are many other good titles in this bigger than normal list especially the Napoleonic section which I haven't included for a couple of lists. Also the American Civil War again makes an appearance after an absence of some months. Such a savage war that one. Over 650,000 killed in action or died of wounds and/or disease. As usual it is a big list of WW1 and WW2 titles which stands to reason because there are possibly many times more books written about these disastrous conflicts than other wars. I don't list very much material from recent conflicts as it is quite limited to the odd generals 'my war' recollections and a few general titles. Needless to say we're waiting for the official unit histories from Iraq and Afghanistan which won't be written any time soon. As usual this list is devoted to those veterans not travelling too well and those still in harms way. We are here for you all. The bookroom is always open for a chinwag and a cup of coffee. Give me a call. Cheers Mick and Jo
