Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. Illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps + end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored: generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

Postage is always extra and insurance is available upon request. Overseas orders by credit card only. Postage will be by cheapest and most practical means possible unless otherwise requested. (In Australia, Express Post is the quickest and carefully handled by Australia Post. Express Post has increased to $17 for a 3kg satchel (this includes everything OVER 500gms and under 3kg). So if you want it quick use Express—bit slower is the 3kg red satchel - $15 which includes post pack and TLC).

Our terms for first-time buyers are 'payment up front'. Established buyers can pay by credit card, cheque, money order etc on receipt of an invoice.

Welcome to Catalogue 201, May 2017. Celebrated my 70th birthday last month, a monumental affair, surrounded by a few close friends, family and fellow lovers of fine red wine. Anyway, that's now come and gone and all I can do is rejoice each morning when I realise I'm still on the mortal coil. Today is Mother's Day and seeing my poor old Mum is long gone, I stayed in bed and left it to my industrious daughter to pamper her. And the Dockers pulled off one of the most stunning victories seen for years with no help at all from the bias Melbourne commentators. This all counts for very little in the world of military book selling. My list 200 was very successful and I thank you all. This list has a diverse range of titles as usual with a number of new or rarely listed titled. They're all one offs so speed is essential. My SIMMO title is again listed at the reduced price of $45. We've sold 810 of the original print run of 1,000 so the sooner we can sell them all, the quicker we can distribute the proceeds to veterans charities (Perth Legacy and the SAS Benevolent Fund). It's a pretty tricky time for world peace at the moment with the nonsensical sabre rattling of North Korea, Russia and China stirring the pot as usual and poor old us, sitting and watching knowing that we will be dragged into something or other very soon. Lets hope Mr Trump's advisors are wise enough to ensure he keeps his hair on. And it looks like we'll be doubling down on more combat troops for Afghanistan. And we all know who their first choice will be. Hard to understand why we continue to get involved in these stoushes so far from home. As usual, this list is dedicated to those who have lost their lives in service especially the two young diggers who were killed in training in recent weeks. RIP. And of course, those who have given their all and are now suffering the consequences of that service. Remember, we are here for each other. Ring a mate. Via con Dios Mick & Jo
