Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps = end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored; generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

Postage is always extra and insurance is available upon request. Overseas orders by credit card only. Postage will be by cheapest and most practical means possible unless otherwise requested. (In Australia, Express Post is the quickest and carefully handled by Australia Post. Express Post has increased to $17 for a 3kg satchel (this includes everything OVER 500gms and under 3kg). So if you want it quick use Express—bit slower is the 3kg red satchel - $15 which includes post pack and TLC).

Our terms for first-time buyers are 'payment up front'. Established buyers can pay by credit card, cheque, money order etc on receipt of an invoice.

Welcome to our November list – #204 which contains many sought-after titles. As we go to press we learn the sad news of the passing of the great SAS soldier Danny Wright. He served in Borneo with 1 SAS Sqn and two tours of Vietnam with 2 SAS Sqn and a further tour with the AATTV with his great mate Dave Scheele, DCM (RIP). He was known as 'Dangme' or 'Jack from Wewak' by most who knew him. He made his name generally in the military parachuting world and as a PJI, taught many of us gormless youths the finer points. He was one of the very best. RIP Dan.

I'm very happy with the high quality of these books many of which are not often seen. In the main it's to do with the size of the print run the author has decided on. If it's only 100-150 then they will disappear overnight. And generally a revised edition reprint is not done due to a lack of funds and the gamble of getting left with them. The SIMMO book we did a year or so is a case in point. We tossed up whether to do 1,000 or 750 given that we did it pro bono and plan to give all proceeds to selected veterans charities when all sold. We went for the 1,000 given it was cheaper to do 1,000 than 750 (don't ask). So here we sit having sold around 850 with the remaining 150 left to go. So it would be good to sell them and free up some shed space – then we can distribute the funds and move on. I also plan to do a limited run of exclusive leather-bound copies (price yet to be determined). If interested in this give me a bell.

As this list comes out we see a daily dose of 'SAS slamming' generally by the Fairfax newspapers and the ABC. And Chris Masters writing a book about them is not at all helpful. This must stop now!! As usual I dedicate this list to those members who endure the slings and arrows of not only the bad guys but our own people as well. Lets hope we see some maturity displayed pretty soon. M & J
