Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. Illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps + end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored; generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

Postage is always extra and insurance is available upon request. Overseas orders by credit card only. Postage will be by cheapest and most practical means possible unless otherwise requested. (In Australia, Express Post is the quickest and carefully handled by Australia Post. Express Post has increased to $17 for a 3kg satchel (this includes everything OVER 500gms and under 3kg). So if you want it quick use Express—bit slower is the 3kg red satchel - $15 which includes post pack and TLC).

Our terms for first-time buyers are 'payment up front'. Established buyers can pay by credit card, cheque, money order etc on receipt of an invoice.

Here we are in 2018 with the first list of the year, #206. After a hectic December where we entertained son Toby and his family from the wilds of Canada and witnessed daughter Georgia's memorable wedding to the redoubtable John Carter (JC). It all went swimmingly needless to say (with Jo and Georgia running things it was ever thus!) My beloved sister Helen and family also came over from Sydney. Plenty of grog was consumed and good cheer prevailed. I think I've just about recovered from the excesses. Glad to see the rear end of 2017 as it was a year in which I spent over 3 months in and out of hospital with a bug in my system. It now seems to have left me although my risk-averse microbiologist prefers me to stay on the antibiotics forever it seems. Ah well, it's certainly better than the alternative. I must write and thank Hotel Hollywood for their excellent care. They look after us Veterans like royalty. (as they should I hear you mutter?) Yes, it's a real bonus for those of who've put our lives on the line to know we will be looked after when it's all over. But...there's a huge worry in the Veteran community with the amount of young blokes from recent conflicts who are taking their own lives. Over 80 last year alone. What to do? Not much I'm afraid except trying to identify those in the system who may self harm. No one's going to put their hand up whilst still serving and admit they have PTSD or other depressive illnesses because the system will throw them out. The unit I served with in particular were pretty fast on the draw so to speak. So no one sought counselling after Vietnam, Timor, Iraq and Afghanistan (may be a bit better now). By the time they pull the pin it's generally too late. And once someone decides to end his life he will generally succeed. But we're there for them and are there to help. As usual I dedicate this catalogue to those veterans (and serving soldiers) who may be struggling. It's important to have veterans and friends networks to keep a weather eye open for each other. Oh by the way, there are some books listed herein for those who still consider a book a higher form of enlightenment. Via con Dios my friends. Mick and Jo
