Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps = end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored; generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

Postage is always extra and insurance is available upon request. Overseas orders by credit card only. Postage will be by cheapest and most practical means possible unless otherwise requested. (In Australia, Express Post is the quickest and carefully handled by Australia Post. Express Post has increased to $17 for a 3kg satchel (this includes everything OVER 500gms and under 3kg). So if you want it quick use Express—bit slower is the 3kg red satchel - $15 which includes post pack and TLC).

Our terms for first-time buyers are 'payment up front'. Established buyers can pay by credit card, cheque, money order etc on receipt of an invoice.

Winter is coming!! As Catalogue 209 hits the streets/airwaves we have a nice little cooling down here in Perth after a long hot summer. Heavy rain the other day was a welcome respite and does wonders for Hyde Park lake/s and Jo's gardens. But we're in for a dry winter. Poor old farmers, can't take a trick. In WA, dry seeding is the best many can do. Remarkably, the crop yields still set nationwide records. The world of buying and selling books moves on it leaps and bounds. Cat 208 went very well with the Beans in their boxes selling as listed. Various other substantial items also sold which is heartening, the down-side being of course, it will be quite awhile before they darken my door again. Some unit histories of the 1st AIF were rare back in the 70's and Blue Burrige came to the rescue by reprinting most of them. But the 1st editions do fetch the big bucks and can be significantly more expensive if they are signed/dedicated by the author and have provenance (ie, come from a famous General's (ie Monash) library)). That's the nature of rare books. The prices on some of these things continue to skyrocket. There are some seriously priced items in an eastern states dealers auction list, books that were common 20 years ago now fetching close to $5,000. Signed in mint condition is most important but...$5G? It's amazing what a collector will pay for that one item that may complete his/her set in a particular genre. In this case it is unit histories, WW1, WW2 and Vietnam which fetch the big bucks. And I've got many of them, all in mint condition. Local military historians Neville Browning (WW1 unit histories), Wes Olson (naval and WW1) and Graham McKenzie-Smith (WW2 unit histories) are all still active and producing great work. These are people we all need to support. The accuracy in their research is first class and without them the work would not get done. So...again we dedicate this catalogue to our lost diggers, sailors and airmen who gave their all so the rest of us could lead a peaceful life. The PTSD epidemic gallops along I'm sorry to say. I'd like to say DVA are doing a great job but I think they continue to place too many hurdles in the way of new applicants – 'hoop jumping' seems to be the order of the day. So our thoughts are with you. M&J
