Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. Illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps = end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored; generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

Postage is always extra and insurance is available upon request. Overseas orders by credit card only. Postage will be by cheapest and most practical means possible unless otherwise requested. (In Australia, Express Post is the quickest and carefully handled by Australia Post. Express Post has increased to $17 for a 3kg satchel (this includes everything OVER 500gms and under 3kg). So if you want it quick use Express—bit slower is the 3kg red satchel - $15 which includes post pack and TLC).

Our terms for first-time buyers are 'payment up front'. Established buyers can pay by credit card, cheque, money order etc on receipt of an invoice.

Welcome to Catalogue 210, July 2018. Bit hard to whinge about the 'dead of winter' here in Perth but it is cold. 3 degrees as we speak. But we've a warm house and plenty of warm clothes so we're much better off than many. This is my last list till September as we are off on a sojourn to Canada and the US to visit offspring and their offspring. Can't wait! Always great to catch up with little kids who remind one of the salad days of one's youth. Not sure I'd want to go back because the pressures on modern day kids seems to be far greater than they were back in my day. They seem a lot smarter too which could be attributed to the technologies they're exposed to daily. Jo and I are both pretty well educated which is manifest in our two kids who are both smart as whips. Toby is a University Professor in the US and Georgia is a Company Director here in Perth. All that money spent in a private school education was not wasted. My parents had nothing but found a way to send me to boarding school and Jo's widowed mother saw her through school and a Legacy scholarship on to university. What I'm trying to say is that we made the most of our opportunities which follows on in our children. In the book world we are a rare species with the prevalence of computers, iPads and mobile phones. There are a few who hang in but every year we hear of another long-term book business going to the wall. If you don't 'own' your premises it's very difficult to sell enough books to cover the rent. And I feel for every one of them who you get to know personally. In the last year Serendipity Antiquarian Books closed their doors. It was a matter of retirement and a need to move onto something else. Damn shame as they always had an abundance of well-priced quality military books.

Speaking of quality books, this catalogue features some great books many of which are 'first time listings'. It's always good to find these gems and they fly out the door as soon as I list them. So get in early on this lot. As usual, we dedicate this list to those soldier who are still serving in harm's way and those who have given their lives in the service of this country. And for those not travelling too well, we are here for you brothers.

Via con Dios Mick and Jo
