CATALOGUE 211

SEPTEMBER 2018

Call to make a time to visit THE BOOKROOM.

Glossary of Terms (and conditions)

Returns: books may be returned for refund within 7 days and only if not as described in the catalogue.

NOTE: If you prefer to receive this catalogue via email, let us know on info@imprimaturbooks.com.au

My Bookroom is open each day by appointment – preferably in the afternoons. Give me a call.

Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. Illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps = end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored; generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

Postage is always extra and insurance is available upon request. Overseas orders by credit card only. Postage will be by cheapest and most practical means possible unless otherwise requested. (In Australia, Express Post is the quickest and carefully handled by Australia Post. Express Post has increased to $17 for a 3kg satchel (this includes everything OVER 500gms and under 3kg). So if you want it quick use Express—bit slower is the 3kg red satchel - $15 which includes post pack and TLC).

Our terms for first-time buyers are 'payment up front'. Established buyers can pay by credit card, cheque, money order etc on receipt of an invoice.

Welcome to Catalogue 211, Sep 2018. Apologies for missing the last one (Aug) but we'd taken ourselves to Canada and the US. Spent most of the time playing with grand kids and watching them rush about playing baseball. What fun!! Also got the chance to 'inspect' Toby's university at Oswego (State Uni of NY). A beautiful town Oswego, right on Lake Ontario. The uni is an old one (c1860) and beautifully laid out. He is quite happy there although the family remain in Toronto. It's a four hour commute twice a week which he takes in his stride. We flew to NY city from Syracuse and spent a few days beavering around NY (by Uber thankfully). Caught a Broadway show "HELLO DOLLY" starring Bette Midler. Not my cuppa tea I'm afraid but both Jo and Toby (and the rest of the theatre) loved it. Toby and I also took in a baseball game between the NY Mets and San Francisco Giants. (Giants won) These major league stadiums are a joy to behold. They play 162 games in a season and everything is very slick!! On the second last day, Jo fell down a flight of stairs and broke a bone in her hand. Could have been worse, she's got a few bruises and sore ribs for her troubles. She got immediate medical attention but saved the heavy stuff till we returned. A lot of ice was used on the way home. I failed in my quest to scour the bookshops in both Toronto and NY. It's similar to back here, they are few and far between. Technology is definitely making an impact on the book world. Reading by Kindle etc seems to be the way the world is moving. So E books may be the future of new books but not for me and a few stout hearts out there who treasure the tactile nature of a book. In the meantime we continue to scour the nooks and crannies to find the 'raries'. There are still many collectors out there who continue to put their collections together. In the field of military history, the collecting of ALL the battalion histories from WW1, WW2 and Vietnam continue—it's like the Quest for the Holy Grail for some although most of those collectors have gone off to their reward. Of course, anyone chasing these books can call me and I can set the hares running, as it were!! As usual this list is dedicated to the serving soldier, sailor and airman who may find themselves in harms way and to those who've gone before. Our hearts go out to families who may have lost a treasured member and we are always with you. Via con Dios
