Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. Illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps + end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored; generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

Postage is always extra and insurance is available upon request. Overseas orders by credit card only. Postage will be by cheapest and most practical means possible unless otherwise requested. (In Australia, Express Post is the quickest and carefully handled by Australia Post. Express Post has increased to $17 for a 3kg satchel (this includes everything OVER 500gms and under 3kg). So if you want it quick use Express—bit slower is the 3kg red satchel - $15 which includes post pack and TLC).

Our terms for first-time buyers are 'payment up front'. Established buyers can pay by credit card, cheque, money order etc on receipt of an invoice.

The Great War 1914-1918	17
World War 2 1939-1945	19

Welcome to catalogue #212, October 2018. Back at the sharp end after ginging around in North America. My swollen legs have now returned to human shape and the compression sox discarded. Thank you Silver Chain, great work. And Jo's broken hand has also healed and her splint is off. Just in time for the summer. Here is a list of nearly 300 titles many of which I've listed and many which are old favourites destined to make list after list especially unit histories. The special book on the cover this month is the highly sought after and regarded 'TASMANIA'S WAR RECORD 1914-1918'. (#215) It's a book in remarkable condition having been published in 1921. It contains a full muster (nominal) roll (incl ranks on discharge) AND a full list of 'district enlistments', one of the very few histories to have this. Of the 12,907 men to have embarked from Tasmania 2,432 were KIA or DOW. Also a list of decorations (incl 11 VCs). John Burrige reprinted this book decades ago and for many years that was the only edition I ever saw. Now I have a pristine original! How good is that? After all these years I still get a buzz from finding rare titles and a bigger buzz from selling them into serious collections. There are many such books in my collection which I try to list as often as I can. Those of you who have visited the book room here in Perth are amazed at the variety of quality books we have. So if you are ever in the vicinity of Hyde Park let me know and drop in for a cuppa. As usual I dedicate this list to soldiers past and present who have given their all for the people of Australia. We are eternally indebted to them. We are always on standby for those needing a leg up. Via con Dios Mick and Jo
