Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. Illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps = end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored; generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

Postage is always extra and insurance is available upon request. Overseas orders by credit card only. Postage will be by cheapest and most practical means possible unless otherwise requested. (In Australia, Express Post is the quickest and carefully handled by Australia Post. Express Post has increased to $17 for a 3kg satchel (this includes everything OVER 500gms and under 3kg). Welcome to Catalogue #213 November 2018. As we head into our second month of 'remembrance' (along with April), we prepare for the 100th anniversary of the end of the great carnage that was WW1. On 11 November 2018 we pause to remember those thousands of diggers who gave their lives in the cause of the British Empire. We lost around 60,000 KIA in this shambles but we proved to the world that Australians could fight and fight to the end. And then, within 20 years, the 'big fight' was looming, this time for the very existence of our culture. Unbelievably, we were totally unprepared for war. In 1939, when the 2nd AIF was being formed and hurriedly, our soldiers were issued with 'war stock' equipment much of which were of the type issued in WW1. But we again handled it with aplomb. The 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th Divisions were formed. The 6th and 7th headed for North Africa whilst the 8th went to Singapore and were captured after a brief struggle spending the war as POWs. I've always thought 'poor buggers'. I still have a thing for General Percival to this day! So while we gird our loins for the 11th, we've just witnessed the remarkable INVICTUS GAMES. A concept thought up by Prince Harry and it was a rousing success. He and his beautiful bride were the toast of Sydney. Many tears were shed by us sports fans who marveled at the bravery, guts and determination and never-say-die attitude of many very sick and damaged servicemen and women. INVICTUS means 'unconquered' and this we saw writ large each day and night. This catalogue is again dedicated to those suffering still and those still deployed. Remember, 'you are never alone'.
