Glossary of Terms (and conditions)

Returns: books may be returned for refund within 7 days and only if not as described in the catalogue.

NOTE: If you prefer to receive this catalogue via email, let us know on info@imprimaturbooks.com.au

My Bookroom is open each day by appointment – preferably in the afternoons. Give me a call.

Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. Illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps + end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored; generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

Postage is always extra and insurance is available upon request. Overseas orders by credit card only. Postage will be by cheapest and most practical means possible unless otherwise requested. (In Australia, Express Post is the quickest and carefully handled by Australia Post. Express Post has increased to $17 for a 3kg satchel (this includes everything OVER 500gms and under 3kg). So if you want it quick use Express—bit slower is the 3kg red satchel - $15 which includes post pack and TLC).

Our terms for first-time buyers are 'payment up front'. Established buyers can pay by credit card, cheque, money order etc on receipt of an invoice.

Welcome to Catalogue 219 of June 2019.

You couldn't really call it the depths of winter yet but it's still a bit chilly here in Perth of a morning. We've resolved to not use the heater much this winter as our contribution to the climate change debate. A good house coat and a blanket on the lounge at night do the job. Now that the election has been decided we can all go back to our lives hopefully although Albo may have made a rod for own back by making a few interesting choices on his front bench. Scomo hasn't done much better to be honest but at least he has the levers of power. I was amazed at how wrong the polls got it all. Donald Trump then Brexit and now us. Not sure polling companies will be in business much longer. It's remarkable that they could all be so uniformly wrong. I think whatever algorithms they're using they should ask for their money back. For those of us who are in business and may in future rely on franking credits, have dodged a bullet. Not too sure where Labor were coming from with their assault on their base who deserted them in droves. Back in the day Labor supporters were 'rusted-on' which does not now appear to be the case. This voting fluidity will be scaring the pants off the strategists from both sides. Let's hope the Coalition get stuck in and do what they promised to do without too much interference from the house of review. The loose canons on the red seats will hopefully see sense in supporting the programs of the elected government (but apparently pigs will fly). So...to books. Quite a few rare titles in this list especially in the Great War section. There are many that I haven't listed before and many that I haven't listed for years—the rarity and condition dictates their value. These valuable books are never seen these days and when they do appear they command high prices. Supply and demand sets in of course. So quickly scan the list and get straight onto me (0417964530). As usual this catalogue is dedicated to ex and serving soldiers who may not be travelling very well. Now that we're generally out of the wars in the Middle East and Afghanistan, there are many soldiers, both men and women, back here and struggling. Keep an eye out for your mates & prepare to give them a leg up. All it takes is the odd phone call. So be kind to each other and
