Glossary of Terms (and conditions)

Returns: books may be returned for refund within 7 days and only if not as described in the catalogue.

NOTE: If you prefer to receive this catalogue via email, let us know on info@imprimaturbooks.com.au

My Bookroom is open each day by appointment – preferably in the afternoons. Give me a call.

Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. Illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps + end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored; generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

Postage is always extra and insurance is available upon request. Overseas orders by credit card only. Postage will be by cheapest and most practical means possible unless otherwise requested. (In Australia, Express Post is the quickest and carefully handled by Australia Post. Express Post has increased to $17 for a 3kg satchel (this includes everything OVER 500gms and under 3kg). So if you want it quick use Express—bit slower is the 3kg red satchel - $15 which includes post pack and TLC).

Our terms for first-time buyers are 'payment up front'. Established buyers can pay by credit card, cheque, money order etc on receipt of an invoice.

Welcome to Catalogue #224, November 2019. Today (31 Oct) we celebrate the wonderfully successful charge on Beersheba by the 4th Australian Light Horse Brigade in 1917. Known as 'the last great cavalry charge', they rode helter-skelter over 6 kms of open ground, jumped the leading Turkish trenches and stormed into Beersheba town (more a small camel station). They were off the horses (which had smelled the water), and got stuck into the Turks with hand-to-hand fighting. They were soon routed and fled north. It was the beginning of the end of the once mighty Ottoman Empire in that region and finished finally in 1918. Beersheba has generally been lost in the fog of time, relegated to insignificance by Gallipoli and the many battles of WW2, Korea and Vietnam. But we do those brave diggers a serious mis-service if we forget them. Their feat of arms was up there with one of the greatest in our short history. Harry Chauvel and John Monash are two extraordinary leaders for which we should always remain thankful. They both had a heavy influence on how the war turned out. As we head in toward Remembrance Day on 11 Nov there will undoubtedly be many more stories told. On completely different subject, I must give a plug for those two young men in their orange vans who provide mobile washing facilities for homeless people around our major cities. They have hundreds of volunteers helping and thanks must go to the companies who provided the equipment for them to do their thing. It gladdens the heart to know there are kind and generous people out there. As mentioned previously, the R&R centre at Jarrahdale is now up and running. Imprimatur Books, Muirs Books and Mainly Books will be establishing a 300 book library there in December. Anyone wishing to add to this haul is most welcome to give me a call on the 0417964530. The best thing about living in the city is the easy access for people to drop in here for a brew and a yarn. I had three such mates drop in on Tuesday and we slipped across the road for lunch (needless to say I sold them quite a few books). Salt of the earth blokes these are. So...we're in the middle of a nice rain storm as we speak – heavenly!! Hope it extends out to the wheat belt. This list is as usual dedicated to those deployed soldiers and those who are doing it tough. Via con Dios M&J
