CATALOGUE 227

FEBRUARY 2020

Glossary of Terms (and conditions)

Returns: books may be returned for refund within 7 days and only if not as described in the catalogue.

NOTE: If you prefer to receive this catalogue via email, let us know on info@imprimaturbooks.com.au

My Bookroom is open each day by appointment – preferably in the afternoons. Give me a call.

Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. Illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps = end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored; generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

Postage is always extra and insurance is available upon request. Overseas orders by credit card only. Postage will be by cheapest and most practical means possible unless otherwise requested. (In Australia, Express Post is the quickest and carefully handled by Australia Post. Express Post has increased to $17 for a 3kg satchel (this includes everything OVER 500gms and under 3kg). So if you want it quick use Express—bit slower is the 3kg red satchel - $15 which includes post pack and TLC).

Our terms for first-time buyers are 'payment up front'. Established buyers can pay by credit card, cheque, money order etc on receipt of an invoice.

Welcome to Catalogue #227 February 2020. This list is dedicated to our gallant fire fighters who have worked tirelessly to halt the conflagration. It's tragic that people lose their lives to protect others. We expect that when we pack soldiers off to some war or other but our civilians should be safe in their own homes. And to see three Americans die flying a fire tanker C130 was particularly harrowing. Having spent a lot of my Army days (and nights) in Hercs I have a particular feel for what it must have been like in those last minutes. It's a huge plane and not easy to crash. RIP men! This fire season was particularly nasty due to the amount of compacted fuel load in the bush which should not have been there. Our indigenous people knew how to control these fires by the use of 'cold fires' - that is, burning often before the fuel load gathers. But...the strident voices won the day with their argument that it would be destroying habitat. Well...I hope these same people have a good long look at what these fires have done. Over 1 billion animals are estimated lost in the unprecedented blazes. Koalas looking down the barrel of extinction and I'd hate to think how many other species are now threatened. Maybe they should have reserved their vitriol for the PM going on holiday and instead got their boots on and slipped out to lend a hand. But no, the noisy inner city chattering classes and some news outlets spent the entire time serving it up to the PM although the States have primacy for fires. And to hear complaints when the Army Reserve was sent in to help! Fair dinkum! And at the end of the day this gallant force provided an extraordinary level of support from trucking in supplies, carting hay and water for farmers, medical and catering and a myriad of other tasks. Well done boys and girls. Proud of you all. And of course, the Navy who rescued whole communities across the beach. Here in the West we've been lucky and not had fires to the extent of NSW and Victoria. There are a few fires burning over here as we speak but I think the fireies have a handle on them. The police have a big task in the East to prosecute those low specimens who have been charged with arson and looting. The courts will be busy for some time to come I predict. I hope judges show some starch and give them sentences they richly deserve. And so to books....Got a few gems in this list and you will notice I've left a few categories on the shelf this time. Someone asked me years ago 'do I get sad when a seriously rare book is sold?' The answer to that is NO! When we first started 28 years ago we declared that everything was for sale! Anyway, I promise not to shed a tear when the gems in this list go to new homes. It's been fun finding them after having been missing in action for so long. Via con Dios M&J
