Glossary of Terms (and conditions)

Returns: books may be returned for refund within 7 days and only if not as described in the catalogue.

NOTE: If you prefer to receive this catalogue via email, let us know on info@imprimaturbooks.com.au

My Bookroom is open each day by appointment – preferably in the afternoons. Give me a call.

Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps + end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored; generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

Postage is always extra and insurance is available upon request. Overseas orders by credit card only. Postage will be by cheapest and most practical means possible unless otherwise requested. (In Australia, Express Post is the quickest and carefully handled by Australia Post. Express Post has increased to $17 for a 3kg satchel (this includes everything OVER 500gms and under 3kg). So if you want it quick use Express—bit slower is the 3kg red satchel - $15 which includes post pack and TLC).

Our terms for first-time buyers are 'payment up front'. Established buyers can pay by credit card, cheque, money order etc on receipt of an invoice.

The Great War 1914-1918	10
World War 2 1939-1945	12

Welcome to Catalogue #228, March 2020. It's been a fraught summer with February here in Perth still a diabolically hot month. We've watched the catastrophes of fire and flood in the East with a few fires here but generally just hot and dry. The flooding rains in Qld and NSW were a welcome respite for the thousands of farmers and towns reduced to trucking water in. But now the dams are full and the rivers and creeks flowing. (bit of luck Cubbie Station will have its own water for years to come). Reminds me of a prayer my father's generation used to sing: "HAIL MARY, THE CREEKS UP!". It was ever thus in NSW. I was born on the Castlereagh River in central-western NSW and that river was either in flood or bone dry. One or the other. Bush fires were an ever-present summer embuggerance, fought by all the able-bodied men in town and environs. Luckily they were never killer fires such as we've seen in eastern parts but were bad enough. One has to hand it to the selfless efforts of all those who fought the fires to the point of exhaustion and beyond. It seems to be a common thing for Australians to drop everything and plunge in regardless of the danger to help their neighbours and communities. I'm proud to call myself an Australian although I'm not much use in a physical sense but I can assist in other ways such as raising and donating money, providing books to help replace libraries lost etc. So...as we look forward to the cooler months, it's catalogue time again. I present here a selection of good books, many of which I've listed previously but there are a few as first time offerings. I get quite a bit of positive feedback on my descriptions which were developed day one back in the day. I used to get very sketchy catalogues from old dealers (long since gone to their rewards) which were very ordinary. It's a bit hard to fork out good money on a book sight unseen. So I decided that the farmer in the Mallee who sits on the dunny reading my list needs to be fully versed on what the book is about, hence my full blown descriptions. It's a formula which has never let me down. Also my insistence on separating books in genre and alphabetical order is of great use to my buyers. As we go to print, the news comes through that the US and Taliban have agreed on a full ceasefire which is great news for soldiers and families who have endured years in the deserts of the Middle East and Afghanistan. As Churchill describes Afghanistan when he served in the Malakand Field Force – "It's a diabolical hell-hole". Hopefully our governments of the future will never commit our great troops to a war zone like this again. RIP the 41 and the many grieving families. We dedicate this list to them all and hope there are brighter moments for the survivors. Via con Dios M & J
