Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. Illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps = end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored; generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

Postage is always extra and insurance is available upon request. Overseas orders by credit card only. Postage will be by cheapest and most practical means possible unless otherwise requested. (In Australia, Express Post is the quickest and carefully handled by Australia Post. Express Post has increased to $17 for a 3kg satchel (this includes everything OVER 500gms and under 3kg). So if you want it quick use Express—bit slower is the 3kg red satchel - $15 which includes post pack and TLC).

Our terms for first-time buyers are 'payment up front'. Established buyers can pay by credit card, cheque, money order etc on receipt of an invoice.

Welcome to Catalogue 229, April 2020. Sitting here in splendid isolation, me downstairs surrounded by books, her upstairs beaver away with her Festival work. I get to speak to lots of people on the phone (and her with back-to-back Zoom conferences) but I haven't sighted another human in the flesh besides my beloved. Food deliveries from restaurants is our main food chain at the moment. We've had some delicious meals from Bivouac in William St and various Chinese and Vietnamese dishes. It's very handy living so close to so many good restaurants. If we all bought a meal from a restaurant once a week it would go a long way to keeping them on their feet. You can order directly from a restaurant in your area which helps them keep their 'doors' open and ready to resume business when we get back to normal – whatever that may look like. This virus has cut a serious swathe through all communities and, thankfully for most of us, we will escape its clutches and our health system holds up (especially for those of us who identify as 'baby boomers'). Those idiots who still congregate in numbers on the beaches, at home parties and weddings, should all have their collars felt and banged up for a spell. There will be no other way to convince them of the seriousness of this pandemic. As my father used to say - "YOU CAN'T EDUCATE MUGS"! So...to books. Our online books are business-as-usual – not too many new titles in this list but plenty of recycled gems and oldies, ready to post and provide you with plenty of reading material for the duration. Again I dedicate this list to the first responders, doctors, nurses and hospital staff as well as the Defence Force. Heroes all. We should all recognize their absolute and selfless commitment to the rest of us. So we will see you on the other side.
