CATALOGUE 231

JUNE 2020

Glossary of Terms (and conditions)

Returns: books may be returned for refund within 7 days and only if not as described in the catalogue.

NOTE: If you prefer to receive this catalogue via email, let us know on info@imprimaturbooks.com.au

My Bookroom is open each day by appointment – preferably in the afternoons. Give me a call.

Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. Illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps + end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored; generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

Postage is always extra and insurance is available upon request. Overseas orders by credit card only. Postage will be by cheapest and most practical means possible unless otherwise requested. (In Australia, Express Post is the quickest and carefully handled by Australia Post. Express Post has increased to $17 for a 3kg satchel (this includes everything OVER 500gms and under 3kg). So if you want it quick use Express—bit slower is the 3kg red satchel - $15 which includes post pack and TLC).

Our terms for first-time buyers are 'payment up front'. Established buyers can pay by credit card, cheque, money order etc on receipt of an invoice.

Welcome to Catalogue 231, June 2020. Whilst still in the middle of the pandemic lock-down, thanks to technology we're still able to reach most of our book buyers via email, zoom and the phone. We still send a few hard-copies but far less than when we first started. It was hard copy only and all hands on deck (mothers-in-law etc) to build the catalogue, get it printed, folded and enveloped, sticking-on of stamps, bundling and posting. Our database was designed by two 17 year old genius students and it is still going strong today with over 11,000 books catalogued. What the future holds is anybody's guess. Isolation has given us pause for thought about how to enhance Imprimatur Books' place in the world. We've been hearing from many friends and buyers picking up the phone to place orders. There's nothing like a lock-down to reflect on your collection and seek out good books for your isolation. I'm always searching for new additions to the list so if you have a hoard of quality military books for sale, give me a call. My preference is to source books locally, many of which may well have passed through my hands over the years.

As for the pandemic – we're doing a remarkable job here in Australia keeping the death rate down to around 100 as other countries such as the US (100,000) - frightening with the civil unrest being unleashed across the country. Closing our internal borders and locking in an impenetrable state border has been effective in containing the spread – the only cases here are directly linked to people coming in on boats and planes. The tourism industry has been champing at the bit to reopen for local visitors, which is slowly happening as restrictions are relaxed.

Whilst I sit here blissfully unaffected by what is going on at the borders, this list has a few gems for you. A new book, 212 Soldiers for the Queen, is about Fijians recruited into the British army in the 60s. It details those who joined 22 SAS Regiment and saw action over many years winning serious gongs. (such as at Mirbat and Prince's Gate) So, jump in and get one while they last. As usual this list is dedicated to servicemen who may be doing it hard, those first responders and health professionals who've really been under the pump for months now. Mind how you go.
