NOTE: If you prefer to receive this catalogue via email, let us know on info@imprimaturbooks.com.au

My Bookroom is open each day by appointment – preferably in the afternoons. Give me a call.

Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps = end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored; generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

Postage is always extra and insurance is available upon request. Overseas orders by credit card only. Postage will be by cheapest and most practical means possible unless otherwise requested. (In Australia, Express Post is the quickest and carefully handled by Australia Post. Express Post has increased to $17 for a 3kg satchel (this includes everything OVER 500gms and under 3kg). So if you want it quick use Express—bit slower is the 3kg red satchel - $15 which includes post pack and TLC).

Our terms for first-time buyers are 'payment up front'. Established buyers can pay by credit card, cheque, money order etc on receipt of an invoice.

Welcome to our Christmas 20% off Catalogue 237. As we head into the festive season it is also the disconcerting season. The unprecedented attack on my Regiment SASR by the disgraceful media, politicians of all stripes and lastly by the military leadership who have turned their faces to the wall for over a decade. But it appears the Government have now taken note of the Yamashita Standard and have named all the commanders who were in charge over the period in question. It was ever thus that the diggers would be held accountable for misdeeds but now the blame is being sheeted home to the wider SASR community. The appalling thing about all this is that they've all been found guilty by the media before they've had a chance to clear their names. The business of killing 'innocent people' has been built into a war crime. I would suggest there were very few innocent people in those areas of operations as it is a well known fact that our enemies use women and children to plant IEDs and mines along access routes. In WW2 in Russia all the roads were mined primarily by village women but that's OK – they were protecting their homeland? In Malaya Chin Peng did the same thing and in Vietnam the women and children we saw in the no-go areas carrying huge bags of rice were part of the supply column. Non combatants? Not on your life. So here we are making a spectacle of our premier combat unit to what end? It's one thing to have whistle blowers in the unit willing to dob their 'mates' in but another for the system to take so long to do anything about it. No doubt there are some soldiers who need to be removed but to tar the entire Regiment with the same brush is scandalous. And to disband a very good combat squadron before all the facts are known – who does that? The Canadians disbanded JTF1 after the incident in Somalia but 10 years later realized they couldn't prosecute the government's military agenda without them, and finally brought them back. Having lost all that expertise it will be awhile before the new JTF will be effective. And in the meantime Iran and China are laughing their heads off. As for the US – I won't go there. Anyway, rant over. There are some good books to be had in this list. Get in quickly (before 17 December) because we're off to Tassie for Christmas. There won't be a January list. This list is dedicated to SASR and all who've served.
