CATALOGUE 239

MARCH 2021

Glossary of Terms (and conditions)

Returns: books may be returned for refund within 7 days and only if not as described in the catalogue.

NOTE: If you prefer to receive this catalogue via email, let us know on info@imprimaturbooks.com.au

My Bookroom is open each day by appointment – preferably in the afternoons. Give me a call.

Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. Illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps = end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored; generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

Postage is always extra and insurance is available upon request. Overseas orders by credit card only. Postage will be by cheapest and most practical means possible unless otherwise requested. (In Australia, Express Post is the quickest and carefully handled by Australia Post. Express Post has increased to $17 for a 3kg satchel (this includes everything OVER 500gms and under 3kg). So if you want it quick use Express—bit slower is the 3kg red satchel - $15 which includes post pack and TLC).

Our terms for first-time buyers are 'payment up front'. Established buyers can pay by credit card, cheque, money order etc on receipt of an invoice.

Welcome to Catalogue #239, March 2021. As I plug away at this list, it's Labour Day weekend in WA. The Hyde Park Fair was in full swing yesterday with kids running everywhere and the trinket stalls were in abundance. Not really my cuppa tea! Had quite a nice beef and cheese burger with chips then wended our way home. We live literally 150 metres from the park and can walk there thankfully. Parking is always a problem at the Festival and there was no sign of social distancing. Plenty of political tents with the State election in 2 weeks, not close to each other but Labor were there in numbers hoping that the election on 13 March will be a 'lay down misere'. Hopefully, the Libs and Nats will put up a good fight, but, given McGowan has done a pretty good job of it throughout the covid lockdown, he will be favourite to win handsomely in the Lower House. My concern is the Upper House. We should hope that Labor does not win control of both houses as we know how governments of all stripes, behave if there's no control over their mad spending. Bit disappointed there were very few books to be had at this year's fair. There's normally 3 or 4 tables laden with all sorts of hard back and paperback books. Not this year though. I was hoping to find something special for inclusion in this list to no avail. It can sometimes be the place to pick up books of quality - you never know. Heavy rain hit us today and is with us for the rest of week which will calm the heat down considerably. Hyde Park lakes can really do with a down pour. The ducks down there are looking a bit frazzled and dry. Whilst the park's staff do a fine job in keeping the gardens and lawns alive, there's nothing like a lot of rain to do the job. Not so good for the Fair! For those who wonder about the repetition of certain books in consecutive catalogues, the answer is simple. Over the 30 years we've been operating, many of my buyers who may miss a list can generally pick up the books they're chasing in subsequent lists. Most of the books we hold are 'one offs' but there are many of which we have more than one copy. (a selection of books on the website are multiple copies). So it's generally first in best dressed but I do keep track of books ordered from a catalogue but has been sold. — if I get another one, it gets listed as soon as possible so keep an eye out for relistings! Most States have now agreed ANZAC Day marches can go ahead. This is good news but I liked last year's arrangement so much I'm going to do it again — that is, stand at my front gate at dawn. As usual this list is dedicated to serving soldiers, airmen and sailors and those who've seen the terror of war up close; and to our marvelous first responders; cops, nurses and doctors, hose draggers, ambos and all the other unsung heroes who keep us safe. Thank you.
