Glossary of Terms (and conditions)

Returns: books may be returned for refund within 7 days and only if not as described in the catalogue.

NOTE: If you prefer to receive this catalogue via email, let us know on info@imprimaturbooks.com.au

My Bookroom is open each day by appointment – preferably in the afternoons. Give me a call.

Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps = end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored; generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

Postage is always extra and insurance is available upon request. Overseas orders by credit card only. Postage will be by cheapest and most practical means possible unless otherwise requested. (In Australia, Express Post is the quickest and carefully handled by Australia Post. Express Post has increased to $17 for a 3kg satchel (this includes everything OVER 500gms and under 3kg). So if you want it quick use Express—bit slower is the 3kg red satchel - $15 which includes post pack and TLC).

Our terms for first-time buyers are 'payment up front'. Established buyers can pay by credit card, cheque, money order etc on receipt of an invoice.

Welcome to catalogue 242 – at the onset of winter here in Perth. It's been a savage summer here in Perth, a season I don't relish as I get older. When young and fit it's a glorious season but..for us septagenarians, it's a real hassle. We got our first serious rain over the last few days which was fantastic. Let's hope it rains all winter. The farmers are reaping the rewards with bumper crops and dams full. The COVID lock down has hit Victoria again (4rd time?) Whereas here in WA we are 'fine and beaut'. It's nice to go to a café for breakfast of a Saturday without a mask, and see the place packed. Cafes in Melbourne are going to the wall and of course, Scott Morrison gets the blame? Go figure! At a personal level, we've been distracted by the deaths of 4 people, mates all. First to leave this mortal coil was Jim Truscott (spoken about in the previous catalogue). Next was LtCol Reg Swarbrick who succumbed to Leukemia, next was my friend Helen Muir, book-seller who had been very ill with cancer. And the last one was an ex SAS bloke in Thailand Gene Bermingham. RIP to them all. I find the best thing about getting older is that people passing becomes more a natural part of the cycle and doesn't hurt anywhere near as much as it did when I was young. They are all in a better place, pain free.

And so to books: there are some special titles in this list. The set of 'Butlers' on the front cover of the catalogue are indeed special. They have come from the 'remainder block' at a printers and binders left over from the production of the 1st editions in 1930-43 but were never bound hence remained 'in the block' for many years. They are 1st eds bound to match the original navy buckram and the gold titles as closely as possible. They are a most desirable set and whomever buys them will be extremely pleased with them. The other items of interest are the reprints of four (of 6) Idriess Guerrilla Series which are offered as a combined lot with a small discount. If the originals can't be found (and they are extremely rare – a full set of 6 in mint condition can fetch up to A$3,000.) then these can be the start of your collection. As usual, this list is dedicated to those veterans still serving or deployed and those who have given their lives for the cause either in action or by their own hand on returning. Also, the desperately sad wives, families, mothers, fathers and all others who suffer the loss. It makes no sense at all.

Via con Dios my friends Mick & Jo
