My Bookroom is open each day by appointment – preferably in the afternoons. Give me a call.

Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. Illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps = end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored; generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

Postage is always extra and insurance is available upon request. Overseas orders by credit card only. Postage will be by cheapest and most practical means possible unless otherwise requested. (In Australia, Express Post is the quickest and carefully handled by Australia Post. Express Post has increased to $17 for a 3kg satchel (this includes everything OVER 500gms and under 3kg). So if you want it quick use Express—bit slower is the 3kg red satchel - $15 which includes post pack and TLC).

Our terms for first-time buyers are 'payment up front'. Established buyers can pay by credit card, cheque, money order etc on receipt of an invoice.

Ah, Christmas beckons! And our gift to you is this quite large list offered at LESS 20%. Welcome to catalogue #248 December 2021. As a lot of the country are in 'lock down', we here in WA, are 'locked in'. The Premier has called this 'an island within and island'. Not sure he's on the completely right track as a lot of businesses associated with the tourist industry are being hammered (to death in some instances). I'm quite happy sitting here in my cave with no urge to go out. I have books, Netflix and a comfortable chair. I tend to limit my forays to the grocery store, chemist and post office. We get our wine and many other things, delivered. So no problems, right? But...this paranoia will have to cease pretty soon before we see our society change permanently. And our chances of seeing our Grand kids in Canada before they're teenagers, is receding rapidly. Luckily we see them on FaceTime once a week. This 'lock in' means we will lose the 5th Ashes Cricket Test to some other state. We had the AFL grand final over here so what's the difference? The 5 day Ashes test (IMHO) is more important than a 1 day cross-country basket ball game between two Melbourne teams few people had heard of. I apologise to anyone who may be offended by this rant but that's what a 'lock in' does to you. Anyway, we've got a quite eclectic selection herein and with a 20% discount making the books most attractive. I don't expect the Idriess set shown on the cover, to last very long at all. They are SO hard to find nowadays that it's hard to imagine them at second hand shops for $2 each (which was the case back a decade or three). The other newly published book is the 'DASHER' biography. His actions in sacrificing his life to stay and die with Butch Swanton is the highest form of valour. He should be everyone's hero. RIP Dasher and Butch. As usual this list is dedicated to all those gallant soldiers who never returned from battle and those who did but now struggle with their nightmares. We are here for you my friends. Vaya con Dios Mick & Jo

The American Civil War 1861-1865

- 248/1 (9141) Axelrod, Alan The Horrid Pit: The Battle of the Crater, The Civil War's Cruellest Mission. Carrol & Graf Publishers, NY, 2007. 1st ed, large 8vo in d/w, plates, chapter notes, appendix, biblio, index, pp284, the Battle of the Crater on July 30, 1864, was the greatest Union fiasco of the war. The explosion of the mine opened a gap in the Confederate line that might have ended the war if properly exploited but the Union generalship from Meade and Burnside down performed abominably, as new cond, A$38.*
