Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. Illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps = end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored; generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

Postage is always extra and insurance is available upon request. Overseas orders by credit card or Paypal only. Postage will be by cheapest and most practical means possible unless otherwise requested. (In Australia, Express Post is the quickest and carefully handled by Australia Post. C.E. Montague,
'Fiery Particles', 1915

Welcome to catalogue #258, November 2022. We've had a dream run here in sunny WA compared to the flood devastations witnessed on the East Coast. So much for the numpty who predicted the dams would never fill up again. Maybe he should get a job with the Bureau of Met so he can get an inside view before mouthing off. This list is limited to five categories only— Napoleonic (etc), Special Forces, Vietnam, World War 1 and World War 2. These are the categories most favoured by my legion of readers. I still have many books from the other categories so if you're looking for a particular book, give me a call and I'll try to unearth it. Some of the unit histories listed herein have never been listed by me before. It's such a bookseller's thrill to have them come across my desk. I haven't seen some of them for 30 years. As usual, I think everything is well prices given the rarity of many. And of course, it's first in best dressed. Once again we're witnessing the political chaos in democratic countries being led by the US, Britain & Canada. And that's without mentioning Israel and Ukraine. Even in our own backyard, we see dictatorial attitudes in Victoria and Qld. The best bit about democracies is that once the people are fed up, the government will be thrown out. The authoritarian states, China, North Korea and Russia don't have these fears. Once again, this list is dedicated to soldiers, past and present who are now not travelling well. Best M & J
