Abbreviations: 8vo = octavo size or from 140mm to 240mm, ie normal size book, 4to = quarto approx 200mm x 300mm (or coffee table size); d/w = dust wrapper; pp = pages; vg cond = (which I thought was self explanatory) very good condition. Other dealers use a variety including 'fine' which I would rather leave to coins etc. Illus = illustrations (as opposed to 'plates'); ex lib = had an earlier life in library service (generally public) and is showing signs of wear (these books are generally 1st editions mores the pity but in this catalogue most have been restored); eps + end papers, front and rear, ex libris or 'book plate'; indicates it came from a private collection and has a book plate stuck in the front end papers. Books such as these are generally in good condition and the book plate, if it has provenance, ie, is linked to someone important, may increase the value of the book, inscr = inscription, either someone's name or a presentation inscription; fep = front end paper; the paper following the front cover and immediately preceding the half title page; biblio: bibliography of sources used in the compilation of a work (important to some military historians as it opens up many other leads). or.cl. = original cloth generally indicating there is no dust wrapper; restored; generally means a book has had the treatment by a book binder. New end papers, glued or sewn spine, even new boards. The value of rare books can be greatly enhanced if they are restored professionally. 'Back-yarders' should desist from attempting to restore books! There are many reputable binders around the place who will do a good job at a good price. By the way, the number that appears in brackets in the catalogue, ie (1814) is a data base number so no need to quote it when ordering.

“War is not a polite recreation, but the vilest thing in life and we ought to understand that and not play at war. We ought to accept it sternly and solemnly as a fearful necessity”.

Leo Tolstoy

‘War and Peace’

Welcome to Catalogue 263, May 2023. Autumn is now sprung on us here in Perth with cool days and cold nights. We have the first signs of rain whilst the main population areas of Australia, ie, the east coast, are again subjected to heavy down pours. April was a month of remembrance—our 48th wedding anniversary and my birthday, and the big one, ANZAC DAY. Again I declined to march or meet up with my mates and, being a non drinker, I supposed to myself, that this may have been difficult. So...once again, I armed myself with a large candle and stood on the footpath at first light till dawn. This is the time when I most remember the original ANZACS and the perils as they faced the black hills of Gallipoli. Then the Turks opened fire with everything they had catching many poor diggers in the boats and many more in the water and on the beach. But our boys struggled on and got a foothold on the slopes where they dug in. They were there for 8 odd months and in that time lost around 8,000 men. With my solemn vigil complete, I came in and turned on the TV and watched all the commemorations around Australia and Villers Bretonneux and later on the Dawn Service at Gallipoli. It was a day of great reflection and remembrance as is this catalogue dedicated to the mates we've lost, current serving diggers and those who may struggling as a result of service. VcD M&J
